Questions to ask

• What is the difference between a journey and a trip?

• Why is 'travel' usually uncountable?

• Do we get in or get on a taxi? A ferry? A horse?

• What is the difference between missing and losing something?

• Where is the stress in 'taxi rank' and 'sports car'?

Anticipated problems and solutions

• 'I had a nice travel.' Travel is usually uncountable: I had a nice trip / journey.

• 'I lost the bus.' You MISS a bus; you LOSE a thing.

• 'Get in the bus.' Big vehicles you can walk in → get ON the bus.

Fast finishers / weaker students

Fast finishers write five 'Guess the transport' sentences like ex. 5 for the class; weaker students do ex. 1 and ex. 3 with the word list on the board.

Homework

• Laser B1+ Workbook pp. 12–13 (vocabulary).

• Learn the 27 items with the flashcards: sozlar.com/vocab/cards/?set=grade10-lesson11

• Write about a real or imaginary journey (80–100 words) using ten words from the lesson.

Reading text — A day of journeys

Last summer my family went on a trip to London. The journey started badly: we missed the bus to the airport, so we got into a taxi instead. At the terminal we checked in with our airline, and the flight was on time. Take-off was noisy, but landing was smooth.

In London we got on a double-decker bus and sat upstairs. Then we took the underground — in the rush hour! The platform was so crowded that my brother nearly lost his ticket.

Two days later we took a ferry to France. We didn't have a cabin — it was only ninety minutes — and when we got off the ferry, a radio taxi was waiting for us. The tickets were expensive, but travel really does teach you about other people.

Reading questions — answer key

1. Because they missed the bus.; 2. Upstairs.; 3. It was the rush hour.; 4. The crossing was only ninety minutes.; 5. trip / journey · miss / lose · travel / journey (any pair).
