Reading text — A morning of prepositions

This morning I asked my mum for some money for the school trip. While I was waiting for the bus, I looked at the timetable and then looked for my ticket. It wasn't there!

On the bus I talked to Simon. We talked about the maths test, and he laughed at my face when I said I hadn't studied. I didn't shout at him — he's my friend.

All morning I was thinking about that lost ticket. My sister says I worry about everything, and I agree with her. But I found it at lunchtime, so I thanked the driver for keeping it.

Reading questions — answer key

1. Some money for the school trip.; 2. The maths test.; 3. Because of the writer's face when he said he hadn't studied.; 4. The driver, for keeping the lost ticket.
