Class	Grade 10
Lesson type	Skills
Aim	By the end of the lesson students can scan a social-media post and five comments for specific information, answer true/false/not stated questions, and talk about their own family.
Materials	Vocabulary sheet (31 items), matching worksheet (Groups A and B), slides, flashcards with audio (sozlar.com/vocab); Laser B1+ pp. 6–7
New items	31 words and phrases

Learning outcomes

• scan five short comments and match them to questions

• use the family words from the comments (a stepfather, a previous marriage, biological parents, get on, keep in touch…)

• answer true / false / not stated and justify the answer from the text

• give an opinion with 'to be honest', 'as far as I'm concerned', 'at least'

Stage by stage (45 minutes)

Min	Stage	Teacher	Students
3	Lead-in	Kitob p.6 «Start thinking!» ikki savoliga javob oling: How many of you live together? How many cousins, uncles and aunts have you got?	Answer briefly.
7	Presentation (4 blocks)	Present A family members and family situations (12) and B living together (7) in class; C getting on and not getting on (10) and D discussing families (2) — read from the vocabulary sheet.	Follow on the sheet, repeat, ask about unclear words.
3	Focus — true / false / not stated	Show the focus slide; give one example of each answer from the text.	Copy the three rules.
13	Reading — ex.1–4 (recycle 1)	Draw Pete's family tree on the board (2 min), then ex.1–ex.2 (4 min), ex.3 (2 min), ex.4 Word box (2 min). For every answer ask: which line?	Scan, answer, read the proof line aloud.
5	Two comments (recycle 2)	Students read the two comments on the lesson page and answer the six questions.	Answer in short phrases.
6	Have your say! (speaking)	Groups of three discuss the two questions; each group reports one advantage and one disadvantage.	Use 'to be honest', 'as far as I'm concerned', 'at least'.
5	Matching activity	Matching worksheet; Group A and Group B, then swap.	Match halves, read aloud, give the Uzbek meaning.
3	Feedback and homework	Correct 'I get annoyed from my sister' (→ with) and 'I have annoyed' (→ I get annoyed); set the homework.	Write down the homework.

If you are running late (skip in this order)

Bu bosqichlar darsning maqsadiga ta'sir qilmaydi — vaqt yetmasa, shu tartibda tashlab keting.

Questions to ask

• Whose family is the most complicated and why?

• Which two comments talk about living far from family?

• What is the difference between biological parents and real parents in Alicia's comment?

• When is the answer 'not stated'?

• Which phrase means «rostini aytsam»?

Anticipated problems and solutions

• 'He borrows my things without ask.' To'g'risi: without asking — without dan keyin fe'l -ing bilan keladi.

• get on va get on with chalkashadi: We get on really well. — I get on with my cousin. Kim bilan ekani aytilsa, with qo'shiladi.

• 'Not stated' o'rniga 'false' tanlash. Savolni matn bilan solishtiring: matn bu haqda gapiradimi?

• 'I'm annoyed from my sister.' To'g'risi: annoyed with someone.

Fast finishers / weaker students

Fast finishers write their own comment to Jenny's post (four sentences); weaker students answer ex.3 with the comment names given.

Reading text — Two comments on Jenny's post

Hi Jenny! I'm Aziza from Namangan. My family is a bit complicated too. My parents are divorced and my mum remarried two years ago, so I live with her, my stepfather and my little half brother, Timur. My dad lives in another city and I stay with him in the holidays. We still get on really well — to be honest, I'm grateful for that.

I share a room with Timur, so it's never quiet! He borrows my things without asking and I sometimes get annoyed with him. But he's four, so my mum says, 'Anything he asks for, he gets!' At least he goes to bed at eight!

Hello from Tashkent! I'm Javlon. There are only three of us: my mum, my dad and me — I'm an only child. My grandparents live nearby, so it's never lonely, and my cousins live in the flat upstairs. The rest of my family live on the other side of the world, in Canada.

I sometimes wish I had a brother, but I have a bedroom to myself and my parents treat me like an adult. As far as I'm concerned, that's the biggest advantage of being an only child. Have your say! What do you think?

Reading questions — answer key

1. Her mum, her stepfather and her half brother Timur.; 2. Because she shares it with four-year-old Timur.; 3. They still get on really well and she is grateful.; 4. In Tashkent; the rest of the family live in Canada.; 5. That he had a brother.; 6. A bedroom to yourself and being treated like an adult.
