Reading — today's words in context

Read the text. The words in bold are from today's list — cover the table above and try to understand them from the sentence.

A night in the old museum

Last winter our class went on a school trip to an old museum. It was a ghost story, an adventure story and a detective story all in one evening!

We were looking at an old map when suddenly the lights went out. Kamol laughed at Malika's scream, but Malika was worried about her phone — she couldn't find it. 'Don't move!' said our teacher, and we all waited for the lights to come on.

In the distance we saw a white shape. It moved, then it disappeared. 'It's a ghost!' somebody shouted. Aziz fell over a chair because he was running in the dark.

In the end, the lights came on. The 'ghost' was the museum guard in a white coat — he was looking for Malika's phone! It was a funny and a little strange night. Now I'm writing the first draft of the story, with direct speech and a title.

Answer the questions in one sentence.

1. What were the students doing when the lights went out?
2. What was Malika worried about?
3. Why did Aziz fall over?
4. Who was the 'ghost'?
5. Find one example of direct speech in the text.

Exercise 1 — Gap fill

6. We watched the vase _____ off the table and break. (fall)
7. Please don't laugh _____ me — I'm trying!
8. We waited _____ Dilnoza for half an hour.
9. My mum always worries _____ me when I'm late.
10. 'My dog ate my homework!' '_____ joking!'
11. I sent the message to the wrong person by _____.
12. The floor was wet. Because of _____, two people fell over.
13. We _____ watching a film when the lights went out.
14. Put the exact words people said in quote _____.
15. I heard the baby _____ all night — it didn't stop. (cry)
