Reading — today's words in context

Read the text. The words in bold are from today's list — cover the table above and try to understand them from the sentence.

The end-of-year party

Nodira: The holidays start in two weeks. What event shall we choose for the end of the year?

Sardor: Let's organise a picnic for our class. We can invite everyone in our class — and our teacher too.

Nodira: That's a good suggestion. But how can people get there? The park is quite far.

Sardor: By bus. It's near the bus station, so it's easy.

Nodira: OK. What else do we need to organise? Music? Games?

Sardor: Why don't I bring my speaker and choose the music? And let's ask Javlon to organise some games — he's good at that.

Nodira: Yes, let's do that. And food? What do guests need to bring?

Sardor: Everyone can bring one thing — fruit, bread, juice. I can make sandwiches. Shall I write the list?

Nodira: Yes, please. That would be great. Tomorrow we can tell the class and vote on the date!

Answer the questions in one sentence.

1. What event does Sardor suggest?
2. How can people get to the park?
3. What does Sardor offer to bring?

4. Who is going to organise the games?

5. Find one offer and one suggestion in the dialogue.

Exercise 1 — Gap fill

Complete the sentences with one word or phrase from the list.

1. '_____ don't I bring some games?' 'Great idea!'

2. '_____ you make a cake for the party?' 'Yes, I will!'

3. Let's ask Malika _____ bring her camera.

4. 'We could have it outdoors.' 'That's a good _____.'

5. 'Shall I _____ you with the bags?' 'Yes, please.'

6. 'Do you want me to wash the cups?' 'No, _____. I can do it.'

7. 'The park is very far.' 'Don't worry — my dad can _____ us a lift.'

8. Let's vote _____ the date — hands up!

9. Come down Market Road and the café is on your _____.
