Reading — today's words in context

Read the text. The words in bold are from today's list — cover the table above and try to understand them from the sentence.

The best party I've ever been to

I've been to a lot of parties, but the best one was my cousin's birthday last spring. It was a ghost party! Everyone wore white sheets, and we told ghost stories and detective stories in the dark.

My aunt sent invitations to thirty guests, and everybody sent a reply. While the guests were arriving, my cousin and I were putting up decorations — black balloons and paper bats. The refreshments were amazing: 'monster' sandwiches and green juice.

Suddenly, while we were talking about a scary film, the lights went out. 'Don't move!' shouted my uncle. Nobody laughed at him — we were all a bit frightened! Then the lights came on and there was a huge cake on the table.

I've never seen a cake like that before. I hope to have a party like that one day. Have you ever been to a ghost party?

Answer the questions in one sentence.

1. What kind of party was it?
2. What were the writer and the cousin doing while the guests were arriving?
3. What happened while they were talking about a scary film?

4. Find two present perfect sentences in the text.

5. Find one verb + to and one imperative.
