Reading — today's words in context

Read the text. The words in bold are from today's list — cover the table above and try to understand them from the sentence.

Grandad's story

My grandad loves telling stories about his childhood. My favourite one is a ghost story about his village. 'It was a terrible night,' he always begins. 'The wind was blowing and the dogs were barking.'

He and his brother were looking for their lost goat. Suddenly they heard a scream in the distance. They were very frightened. Then they noticed a white figure near the old mill. It moved, and then it disappeared!

'Were you worried about the goat?' I asked. 'Not at all,' he said. 'I was worried about my brother — he was running home!' Unfortunately, they never found the goat. Or maybe it found them — the white figure was the goat!

Grandad tells this story at every family party, and everybody always laughs at the end. It's a strange story, but it's also a really amazing one.

Answer the questions in one sentence.

1. What kind of story is Grandad's favourite one?
2. What were Grandad and his brother looking for?
3. What did they notice near the old mill?
4. Who was Grandad worried about?
5. What was the white figure, maybe?
